--- Getting You To X ---

GREETINGS TREASURE HUNTERS,

The year is not even half over, and we're making some changes in how we look at 2024. Normally, I would not be writing these words until October or so. By bringing our offerings for 2024 to you earlier, we're hoping to make planning for our extraordinary adventures a little easier. We all like things a little easier!

2023 has already seen exquisite outings to Florida and Alaska, so we've been hitting some opposite ends of the geographical spectrum. We've also had the joy of our local jaunts. The tours awaiting us for 2023 promise to be as lustrous as the awe-inspiring auroras we saw in Alaska. With all that 2023 holds in store, though, let's turn our attention to the year awaiting us after the holidays.

You'll notice one fewer among the smiling faces here on this page, as Kendall has made her way to other projects and pursuits. We wish her every happiness in her future ventures. Michael and I will still be here at the helm, though, with the rest of our retinue, ready to enlighten and entertain. We're resuming our travels internationally this year, with our choo-chooing in Canada, but the real proof of things will be in 2024, where we move away from the local neighborhood, the familiar landscapes of North America, and head across the Pacific. We'll sample the flavors of Korea and Japan, meeting folks from two of Colorado's sister cities across the sea. Our trip will indelibly demonstrate that our travel life has returned to normal.

Beyond large puddle jumps, of course, there will be a tempting menu of outings right here in the U.S. Dr. Andrew Gulliford will start our year right as we leave some of the winter weather behind, guiding us around Arizona. Jack Wheeler, the Man o'Trains himself, will take us to California and South Dakota. Worlds apart, but the trains will be just as memorable. As always, there will be good grammar from Kevin and attention to detail from Michael. These are part of the icing on our cake!

What of the people you travel with, too? It's been a real pleasure to watch folks coming into the club and making friends. Even if I never tour another day, I will have the ongoing happiness of knowing that there has been so much joy in those familiar faces. We are all together in chocolate. We are all together in travel. Not a bad life!

Are you already thinking about 2025? Well, we know that some of you are, as the list of suggestions from you only continues to grow. The first of our offerings from 2025 will actually be included here, just to give you sufficient time to plan. As always, please let us know where you'd like to go, as our best trips often come to us as ideas from you!

We continue to conquer more states. We even continue to conquer more countries. I am a lucky duck to be able to sit at the helm of this magnificent parade and make all these journeys with you. We'll share the good fortune together, for 2024 and onward. Let's ready the sails and keep straight on till morning!

We look forward to traveling with you,

Tour Classifications

Long before credit cards and money-sending cell phone apps like Venmo, transactions were made using durable and tangible coins. Coins were the medium of trade in many communities, and minting of coins often sprang up in the absence of coins being readily available on the frontier. Metals had their relative value, of course, and so our metal markers here will indicate how much a tour or overnight will affect your coin purse of today.

Copper Penny

$30-$175

For some copper pennies, we'll get you out and about for a single day. These include walking tours, day hikes, our standard five-hour bus tours and simple caravan tours. Meals will generally be on your own.

Silver Eagle

$200-$2,500

Soar in with some silver eagles, and we'll sail away with you for shorter overnights and some more expensive specialized adventures. These include overnights of two to four days and customized and novel outings, such as tastings and culinary tours.

Gold Doubloon

$2,500-$7,500

Time to crack open your secret pirate stash for high adventure. These signature sojourns include overnights of five or more days, as well as high-end luxury and overnight tours.

Gulliford's Travels

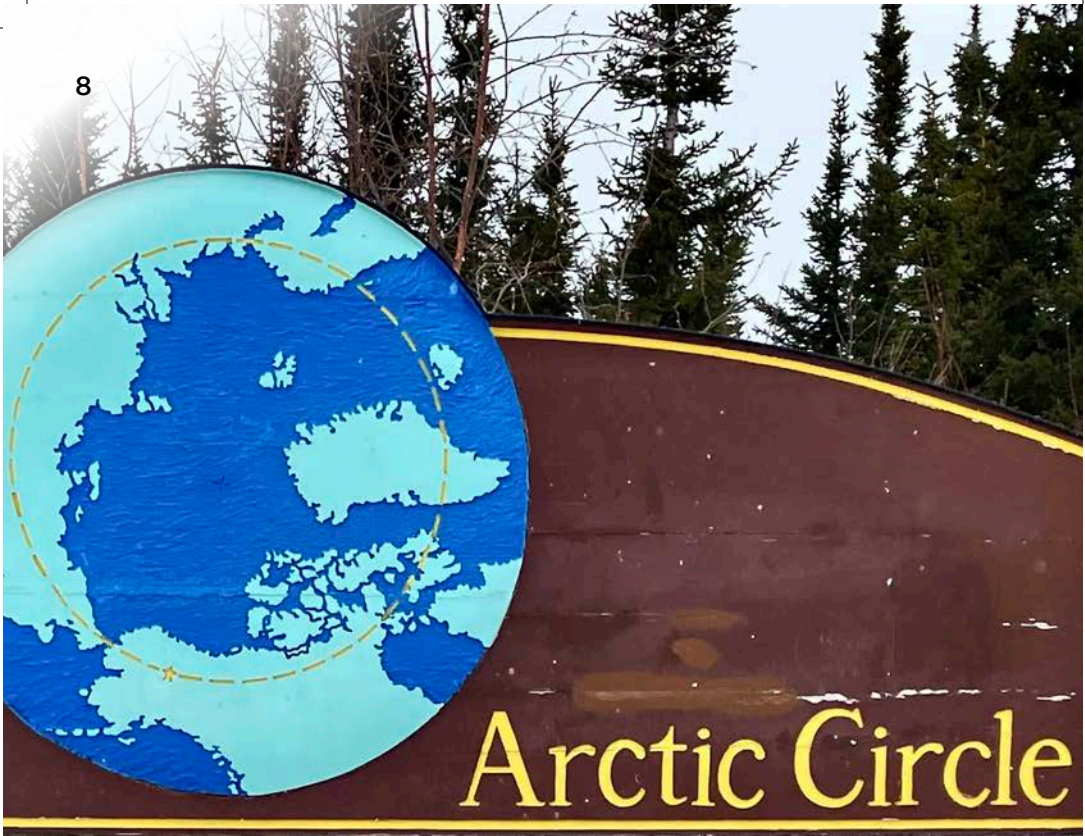

Dr. Andrew Gulliford, professor at Fort Lewis College in Durango, is your host on these travels. Between classes, he dons his trademark hat and leads adventures all over the West. This knowledgeable author, guide and weaver of completely-true-tales will always guide you well and get you back to port in style.

Iron-Horse Travels

The growth of many a nation was built upon ribbons of iron rail, and how better to explore the remnants of those ribbons than with our own Iron Horse himself, Jack Wheeler. "Train Enthusiast" only hints at the knowledge and experience of this frequent rail rider. Join Jack for the modern vagabond life of the train with our Iron-Horse Travels.

DISCOVERING BASELINE ROAD

$65 Saturday, January 20, 10 am - 3 pm

BUS TOUR = EASY

So far, none of the roadways we've followed on our journeys have been able to claim such a lofty status as having been a border! Before Colorado Territory was created, Baseline Road was the dividing line between Kansas and Nebraska Territories. That would have put Boulder solidly in Nebraska, with Denver a world away in Kansas. As the Arkansas River would lose its status as an international border, so would Baseline Road lose its claim to a division. Stretching from the mountains to the prairie, from Boulder to Brighton, let's get to the base of the story. It's time to drive the story of Baseline Road!

Starts at the SpringHill Suites by Marriott Denver Downtown. Includes guide interpretation and coach transportation, with a stop for lunch at your own cost.

DENVER'S SWEET TREASURES

$85 Saturday, February 10, 10 am - 3 pm

BUS TOUR = EASY

It's time to taste the sugary sensations of Denver with an exploration of the famed and fabled goodies that your dentist may not approve of, but we all still enjoy anyway. Join us on this honeyed adventure with visits to get candy, chocolate and ice cream around the city. Tastings and samples will be provided at each location, with the opportunity to purchase extra sweet stuff to take home and indulge. We'll imbibe with a local chocolatier, visit Hammond's candy factory and take in the creamy goodness of Little Man Ice Cream. You'll end the tour feeling like a modern day Willy Wonka!

Starts at the SpringHill Suites by Marriott Denver Downtown. Includes guide interpretation, coach transportation and food samples at multiple locations with a stop for lunch at your own cost.

THERE'S A MYSTERY AFOOT

$65 Thursday, February 29, 10 am - 3 pm

BUS TOUR = EASY

From Nancy Drew and the Hardy Boys to the works of Agatha Christie, we all love a good mystery! So, it's time for our annual whodunit with a brand new mystery to solve! Don't worry; there won't be any blood, and you won't have to use the secret passageway between the study and the kitchen. We've concocted a mystery, based partly in history and partly in fancy, that we will solve together from the comfort of our bus, following the clues from place to place until we solve the crime! Everyone will get to join in on the sleuthing, and our collective skills and sharpened wits will address all the clues we find. Taking them on, one by one, the clues will topple before us, then there will be none! The game is afoot!

Starts at the SpringHill Suites by Marriott Denver Downtown. Includes guide interpretation and coach transportation, with a stop for lunch at your own cost.

BOULDER MUSEUM SAMPLER

$85 Friday, March 8, 10 am - 3 pm

BUS TOUR = EASY

Boulder has much more to offer than all things collegiate. Below the Flatirons, history and art have found their homes. We'll give Boulder our full attention, with a guided tour of the Museum of Boulder before seeing the Boulder Museum of Contemporary Art, with a knowledgeable guide to translate each brush stroke. Both places are quite extensive, so we'll have much to fill our Boulder day. It would take us many visits to see everything the city has to offer, so let's start making a dent with our Boulder Museum Sampler!

Starts at the SpringHill Suites by Marriott Denver Downtown. Includes guide interpretation and coach transportation, with a stop for lunch at your own cost.

LORETTO HEIGHTS: FROM COLLEGE TO NEIGHBORHOOD

$30 Tuesday, March 19, 1-3pm

WALKING TOUR = EASY

In Boston, Harvard was founded in 1636. That's some longevity! In Colorado, you may find long-lived campuses, too, but there are also some that have finished their march of pomp and circumstance. Loretto Heights began its journey in the 1890s and served as a girls' school, a training ground for soldiers, a place for 'unwanted' Japanese students and the college that would lend its name to the neighborhood across the street. Loretto Heights is entering a new phase, so let's walk the sidewalks of this new neighborhood. We'll see what's left and talk about what's been lost. A new dynamo is being born in southwest Denver, so let's have a look!

Starts in the Loretto Heights neighborhood. Includes guide interpretation.

LET'S GO GASTRONOMY!

$125 Saturday, March 30, 11 am - 4 pm

BUS TOUR = EASY

Some traditions should always continue. How about getting out for food and drink with your friends, all with a hefty side dish of history, development, a few tall tales and more? That sounds like a banquet not to miss! Join us for our annual tradition, with dining and libations around the city. Our last two years have been on foot. In order to get to places farther afield once again, we'll get back on the bus for this one. Once we're on the bus, we're going to honor one of the great dining traditions of the past: Casa Bonita! That will just be one stop, though. This will be our Colfax-centric food and drink tour. So, let's drive along this fabled byway for our dining delights. Let's eat!

Starts at the SpringHill Suites by Marriott Denver Downtown. Includes guide interpretation, coach transportation and food and drink samples at multiple locations.

QUADRANT QUEST: SOUTHEAST

$65 Tuesday, April 2, 10 am - 3 pm

BUS TOUR = EASY

In most months, people spend their time in three places: home, work and the places for common errands. With that, we often don't get out to see other parts of the city, which means there are so many little details of your own city that you likely don't know! We've broken Denver into four quadrants into four quadrants, and our quest is to see them all. Join us for our next one, Quadrant Southeast, and our deep discovery dive will begin. After the city's well-to-do left downtown, their progress was mostly toward the southeast. We'll mark some of the mansions and milestones of that expansion. There will be tales of bummers, waterslides, nuclear churches, dirty ditches, shocked socialites, stargazing and more. It's not your day-to-day outing, so make a voyage of discovery with us as we head southeast!

Starts at the SpringHill Suites by Marriott Denver Downtown. Includes guide interpretation and coach transportation with a stop for lunch at your own cost.

FARMS AND FOOD OF NORTHERN COLORADO

$150 Saturday, April 13, 8 am - 4 pm

BUS TOUR = EASY

Join us on this excursion to northern Colorado to get a better understanding of where your food originates, from the fields to your dinner table. We'll visit Morning Fresh Dairy to learn all about the process of taking milk and creating fresh, wonderful dairy products, such as Noosa yogurt. We'll also explore the grounds of the farm in Bellvue. We'll then indulge in some tasty morsels for lunch at a local farm-to-table restaurant experience in Fort Collins. It's time to learn from the farmers that feed Colorado!

Starts at the SpringHill Suites by Marriott Denver Downtown. Includes guide interpretation, all entries, coach transportation and lunch.

THE CAPITOL COLLECTION: COLORADO AND WYOMING

$125 Tuesday, April 16, 9 am - 5 pm

BUS TOUR = EASY

A casual suggestion from a friend led to the creation of a souvenir passport book for those who visit state capitols. Sure, it didn't happen overnight. It took a lot of work ...and a drive of 16,503 miles to deliver all those stamps! Would you like to be a capitol collector? Let's give it a try. As part of this tour, you will receive your own copy of the Capitol Collection book. Already have one? Be sure to bring it with you! Then, we'll get a tour of our two nearby capitols. Denver, easy! We'll also make a drive to Cheyenne, the city that could have replaced Denver as the regional center if the trains had truly been destiny. While neither capitol is in the Top Ten (and yes, we DO know which ones those are), both have some worthy stories, art and architecture to share. So, join your own local Capitol Connoisseur and get your book initiated. Unless you've already started your capitol journey, only forty-eight more to go. Let's put the "Oh!" in capitol together!

Starts at the SpringHill Suites by Marriott Denver Downtown. Includes guide interpretation, all entries, the Capitol Collection souvenir passport book and coach transportation with a stop for lunch at your own cost.

TOUCHDOWN! A LOOK INTO COLORADO SPORTS

$100 Thursday, April 25, 10 am - 3 pm

Ah, the American pastime of watching your favorite sports team win a game. We're going to explore the treasures of Colorado's sports teams with behind-the-scenes tours at some of our major venues across the metro area. From football and baseball, to basketball and even soccer, Colorado is a competitive state! Let's dive into the makings of a great sports team. When did the teams start, how is the field maintained, what does the locker room look like? All of these questions and more to be answered with our home-run tour. Play ball!

Starts at the SpringHill Suites by Marriott Denver Downtown. Includes guide interpretation, all entries and coach transportation with a stop for lunch at your own cost.

TRACING OUR RIVERS: THE PLATTE

May 4-12: Register by Friday, March 8

OVERNIGHT TOUR = MODERATE

Double Occupancy: $3,050 per reservation

Single Occupancy: $3,775 per reservation

10% deposit due with registration with option to pay in full.

Having traced the fraught waters of the Colorado River, let's have a more placid journey along the waters of the Platte River. Coming from the French word for 'flat,' the river's many mountain threads reach the banality of the prairie near Denver as the South Platte. North Park, Colorado, fittingly gives rise to the North Platte. Both sections come together in Nebraska before finally drowning in the majestic Missouri. We follow both North and South as we seek the story of the Platte. From precipitous mountains to the flat ubiquity of the plains, the Platte has nurtured a nation and fostered our state's history. It's time to find out where it's at on the Platte!

THE CRITTERS OF COLORADO

$80 Tuesday, May 21, 10 am - 3 pm

WALKING TOUR = EASY

Colorado is known for the quintessential mountain animals such as bears, wolves and deer. Our state mammal is the Rocky Mountain bighorn sheep. The state bird is the lark bunting, and our state fish is the greenback cutthroat trout. While we do have a strong wildlife presence, what about the little critters that were introduced to the state? What of the non-native fox squirrel, brought over with early pioneers, or even horses as we know them today? What happened to the grizzly bear? We even have more exotic species living in the state in well-maintained enclosures, such as giraffes, elephants and tapirs. Let's take a safari through the past and present with an exploration of our Colorado critters, from the Denver Museum of Nature and Science to a special tour at the Denver Zoo, both hosted on the grounds of City Park. It will be a wildly good time!

Starts at the Denver Museum of Nature and Science. Includes guide interpretation, all admissions and a stop for lunch at your own cost.

RAIL DISCOVERY: THE N LINE

$65 Friday, June 28, 10 am - 3 pm

WALKING TOUR = EASY

Weld County is growing rapidly these days, and so are the suburbs between Denver and that northern locale. The N Line is following that growth northward, connecting downtown to the commuters needing transit. Along the way, there is a new powerhouse in the making at the National Western Center, so this new rail line will have some fine claims to our attention as we tour its length. From failed cities in the north to year-round fun in the south, the N Line carries us through many of the trends of making a modern metropolis, with some art and food thrown in there to keep things spicy. Let's hit the rails!

Starts at Union Station. Includes guide interpretation, RTD tickets to ride the train and lunch.

NORTHWEST COLORADO JOURNEYS

July 15-19: Register by Friday, May 17

OVERNIGHT TOUR = MODERATE

Double Occupancy: $2,750 per reservation

Single Occupancy: $3,500 per reservation

10% deposit due with registration with option to pay in full.

The story of this corner of the state is as remarkable as all the others, but it shares an unusual kinship with the southeastern corner that the others may not claim. Like the plains where Colorado touches Kansas and Oklahoma, the high plateaus, canyons and mountains of northwestern Colorado were never fully reached by train. There were high hopes and determined men, but the train limped to a dead end, never reaching the border. Later, an interstate was supposed to traverse the area. Like the failed train, the interstate was rebuffed, leaving northwestern Colorado a place apart, even today. Dr. Andrew Gulliford will lead us on an exploration of this section of Colorado that is just fine being unlike the rest (thank you very much), with tales of sheep, dams, coal, chainsaws, racetracks, mustangs and more. You may feel a world apart, but the pristine beauty will make you feel right at home.

Sometimes it's good to work on the basics. We all know our ABCs, so let's put a little spin on them with Colorado luminaries for each letter! A? Why, everyone knows Loveland has art, but how many folks head to Sterling? The city has a surprising theme, transforming dead trees into standing sculptures. So jolly! B? Why, it's time to gallop into the Kit Carson County Fair, where they start the multi-day event with free barbeque. The story of HOW the barbeque it made is so charming, we're sure you'll feel as if you've taken the blue ribbon! And C? Why, that beloved carousel, with all its historic charm, will beguile us with the sounds of a century ago. In one overnight tour, we'll make sure you remember your ABCs with these inspiring Colorado gems.

Starts at the SpringHill Suites by Marriott Denver Downtown. Includes guide interpretation, coach transportation, overnight lodging, all entries and three meals, including a Welcome Dinner.

DIA ART - MYSTERIES AND MASTERPIECES

$65 Wednesday, August 21, 10 am - 3 pm

BUS TOUR = EASY

In constructing the buildings that house and serve us, we've always been interested in decorating. After all, a blank wall just aches with its emptiness. Our airport is no exception. Wonders both two- and three-dimensional delight our eye at DIA, while also feeding a frenzied mill of rumors and conspiracies about secret underground bases, lizard overlords and secret societies. That's a lot for one airport! While we won't get to walk out to that magnificent horse, we will get to hear the artist's intent, which may well make you give it the appreciation it deserves. So, rather than rushing by on your way to your flight, let's pause and admire the art around us at DIA. As for lizardmen aliens ... there's no need to look for those. Nope. No need for that!

Starts at the SpringHill Suites by Marriott Denver Downtown. Includes guide interpretation, coach transportation, all admissions and a stop for lunch at your own cost.

We all eat, but we don't all do it the same. As the French say, "Americans eat to avoid dying. The French eat to LIVE!" As you wolf down your lunch in 6 ½ minutes, perhaps daydream about that most divine of food experiences: a raclette. Some of us have been rendered fully speechless by its tasty majesty! We're going to make a full overnight of cheese, with raclettes, slow meals, slow sips of coffee, desserts in the park and the beauty of eating the French way! Sure, you'll come home extremely full, but those two days will be happy, happy days for your palate, for your senses and for your soul. Whether you've never heard of a raclette or you're a die-hard fan, it's a tour of indulgence. Let's LIVE!

We cross the Pacific for the memorable offerings of its western edge, starting with the Land of the Morning Calm, Korea. We'll begin in the city known as the Miracle on the Han, cosmopolitan and bustling Seoul! Though almost as ruthlessly modern as possible, there will still be much of the country's history to see and admire as we explore. We'll see Seongnam, one of our Colorado sister cities, in all its suburban glitter. We'll also give you a full day to wander, which might be your chance to see the DMZ! From Korea, we'll visit the history and culture of Hiroshima and Kyoto before heading north to two of our Colorado sister cities in Japan. Fujiyoshida sits beneath the country's most famous mountain. North of Tokyo, Moriya is not a name people know, but the locals are excited to share their home. With a free day to explore Tokyo, we'll be ready to head home, satiated by the mystic memories we've made. Let's chase the rising sun together!

THE KING OF INSTRUMENTS: ORGANS OF DENVER

$45 Friday, October 4, 1-4 pm

WALKING TOUR = EASY

It's time to pull out all the stops and let loose a glorious noise. Yes, it's time to tour the voices of music from those ever-upright pipes of the organ! Organs once provided music in movie theaters as well as in sacred places all around us, and it was not uncommon to have much smaller versions for the home. Today, movie theaters have surround-sound, and houses have Alexa, but there are still places with organs to be found, and we'll tour them together. Join us for a look and a listen with some of the instruments built to shake the very foundations of the earth, created to turn the eyes of heaven toward us. It's time to honor the King of Instruments! Pull out the stops!

Starts in downtown Denver. Includes guide interpretation and donations to each hosting organization for the upkeep of their organ.

Double Occupancy: $2,450 per reservation

Single Occupancy: $2,750 per reservation

When Robert Frost wrote about nature's first hue, he may well have been talking about Colorado, where our mountains burst into fantastic gold, nature's hardest hue to hold. Though the window for fall colors is always determined by Mother Nature, we'll be covering some distance in our hunt for the quaking gold of autumn. From Cripple Creek to Palisade, with national parks, mountains, meadows and more, our hunt will show us the superlatives of the state's scenery, where we'll give Mother Nature every opportunity to demonstrate her quality. As leaf subsides to leaf, our trip will be so brief, but we make the journey anyway, for nothing gold can stay.

Starts at the SpringHill Suites by Marriott Denver Downtown. Includes guide interpretation, coach transportation, three nights' lodging, all entries and five meals, including a Welcome Dinner.

WYMAN HISTORIC DISTRICT

$30 Saturday, October 26, 1 - 3 pm

WALKING TOUR = EASY

As we continue our journey around Denver's historic districts, we make our way back toward the center for a place that's a little of everything. 'Eclectic' would definitely apply! Covering more than seventy years of development, there are many different styles that were originally constructed within its borders. Over time, the restless energy of Colfax Avenue and other tourist destinations have wrought some surprising changes upon the area. With everything from Spanish Revival to Vernacular Cottage, the Wyman Historic District has as much to share as the giants along its flanks. Doesn't that seem worth a walk? Well, then ...let's get walking!

Starts in the Wyman neighborhood. Includes guide interpretation.

DENVER DIVINITY

$65 Wednesday, November 6, 10 am - 3 pm

BUS TOUR = EASY

Early Denver was only interested in enriching its pockets. Moral concerns would come later. Once they did reach Denver, they naturally needed permanent homes, for having religious services in saloons does come with a host of concerns (and bullets!). Join us for an exploration of some of the houses of worship of Denver. We'll tour three buildings, to learn about their art, architecture and the beliefs held within them. While we won't know the specific houses of worship until closer to the tour, we know that you'll come away feeling divinely inspired by your day. With such a diversity of people in the city, there will be much to learn on our Denver Divinity tour!

Starts at the SpringHill Suites by Marriott Denver Downtown. Includes guide interpretation and coach transportation, with a stop for lunch at your own cost.

THE ROYAL EXPERIENCE

$100 Tuesday, November 12, 10 am - 3 pm

BUS TOUR = EASY

As the city's southern extremes transform from houses and businesses to countryside, two country estates rise up in aristocratic defiance of the changes time has wrought. The Highlands Ranch Mansion has lost much of its great estate, but nothing of its grandeur. Farther south, the Cherokee Castle still looks out on a land much unchanged, the mountains eternal in its gaze. From the ladies who made them famous to the pages of famous books, both stand as exemplaries on the Colorado stage. Let's get our taste of royal life for a while from the ramparts of Colorado's own castles!

Starts at the SpringHill Suites by Marriott Denver Downtown. Includes guide interpretation, coach transportation, admissions and a stop for lunch at your own cost.

Every December, Glen Eyrie brings the music, majesty and tastes of the Middle Ages out for our enjoyment, all with a dose of the religious ardor of the season. The Lord and Lady of the Hall will be our most gracious hosts. A sumptuous evening of food and drink, all accompanied by the angelic tones of the voices of winter, will conclude with an overnight at the Glen Eyrie castle. No driving home in the dark for us! The following morning, we'll have our breakfast within the castle's historic walls. Then, we'll head out into the city to hunt up some of the merry decorations for December! There won't be any lights on the trees, as it will be daytime, but we'll make up for it with the lights of happiness in our eyes. Perhaps we will even raise our own voices to the glories of winter!

While we're so close to the ocean, we'll also take to the waves in hopes of seeing some whales! Our Personalized Adventures are the ultimate in customized excursions, walking tours and private large group tours. We will meet with you to learn what you want to see and for how long. From there, we do all the research and build an itinerary or tour for you. Once you have the itinerary you like, we make all the reservations. Then, with everything done, we hand it off to you, or take you along on the adventure of a lifetime. You may choose to go on your own — or one of our staff members will go with you as your personal everything: tour guide, errand runner, conversation partner, photographer and general valet. As each of these tours is custom built, the price is varied. Leave the work to us, and we'll get you to X in style!
